CORAM: SMT. NISHITA MHATRE, J.

DATED: 12TH JULY, 2007.

P.C.:

1. The second appeal has been filed by the plaintiffs contending that he had a right of pre-emption over the suit property. Both the Courts below have held that the suit property was partitioned and, therefore, the defendants had a fulfledged right to sell it to whoever they wished. The plaintiff had no right or claim to the suit property. Concurrent findings of fact have been arrived at by both the Courts below. There is no substantial question of law involved in this appeal.

2. Appeal dismissed.
